

About Us

Vietmeier Golf Center is a player development, training and practice facility for golfers of all ages and skill levels. The facility is located in McKees Rocks, PA., 2 miles from the Moon Run/Crafton Exit on Interstate 79. Vietmeier Golf Center is open year round.

Owned and operated by Ed Vietmeier, PGA Professional. Ed along with his wife, Annette, look forward to serving you and growing the game of golf.

Vietmeier Golf Center opened on April 2, 2011. Since then, many updates and enhancements have been accomplished. Now equipped with 36 top of the line mats, target areas, 110 yard grass tee area and 36,000 TaylorMade Burner Range Balls.

We are proud to be the TaylorMade Premier Tuned Performance Center Pittsburgh. No need to wait for Demo Day, get a professional fit by a TaylorMade Certified Club Fitter at Vietmeier Golf Center. Call the proshop to schedule your appointment.

Vietmeier Golf Center is still growing and upgrading the facility. We opened our new 110 yard grass tee in the spring of 2014; which is adjacent to our short game practice area.

Please visit our social media accounts and view the photo gallery on our website to see the upgrades and things to come! Follow us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter and keep up-to-date!

Whether you are looking for golf instruction; a place to practice your game; TaylorMade, Adidas equipment and apparel; or just a place to play miniature golf with the family, Vietmeier Golf Center is the place to go!

About Ed Vietmeier

Ed Vietmeier is a longtime member of the PGA, active player and teacher. He has had a variety of experiences and accomplishments throughout his career. He started playing competitive golf at the age of 12 years old.

His playing achievements are many, but some include:

- ◆ High School All American and Pennsylvania All-Conference team in the same year;
- ◆ NCAA All American;
- ◆ Placed 9th in the National Championship;
- ◆ Competed and placed in the PGA National Long Drive Contest
- ◆ In 1988 was inducted in the California University Hall of Fame.
- ◆ Multiple winner of the Tri-State Section Championship.

Ed continues to compete and add to his playing accomplishments, some include: winning numerous tournaments locally and in Florida; competed and earned his place in the PGA National Club Pro (five times) throughout his career, the latest being 2010.

His professional achievements include being the Host Professional for the LPGA Future's Tour, served on the Tri-State Board of Directors, and he is certified to teach Adaptive Golf Instruction.

There is no doubt that Ed loves the game of golf and growing the game for all age groups and skill levels. His goal is to provide a practice facility that is fun, and provides the tools and facilities for players to enjoy, relax and practice the skills of the game.
